THE HERO OF RED BANK.

7 — CAPTAIN SAMUEL RINKER.

Born 1760. Died 1823.

Beautifully executed ivory miniature painted in London, England. In antique gold frame with lock of hair and jewels in back. Size 2 3-4 by 2 1-4. SEE PLATE.

Captain Rinker served in the Continental Navy, and it was he who swam the River Delaware to warn the American fortifications at Red Bank of the intended attack by the British in the Revolutionary War. He also served in the American Navy in the War of 1812 as Sailing-Master. He brought Genl. George G. Meade's father and mother home from Spain. He was highly commended by Congress for his services in the Navy.

8 — PORTRAIT OF A HANDSOME YOUNG MAN.

Beautifully executed on ivory by an unknown artist. In antique gold frame, with lock of hair in back. Size 3 x 2 1-2 inches. SEE PLATE.

9 — PORTRAIT OF A FRENCH LADY.

Artistically painted on cardboard. In antique gold frame, with lock of hair in back. Size 2 5-8 x 2 1-8 inches. SEE PLATE.

10 — GENERAL JOSEPH REED OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

An exquisitely painted miniature on ivory (unfinished), by Charles Willson Peale. Unmounted. Size 1 1-2 x 1 1-4 inches. SEE PLATE.

11 — PORTRAIT OF A LITTLE GIRL.

LEUTZE, EMANUEL.

Born in Wurtemberg 1816.

He painted, besides many portraits, a number of important historical scenes relating to America. His portraits are noted for their truthfulness to nature. The painting portrays the Eminent Jurist at the age of 83, at a period when the country was involved in civil war, and at a time when he was called upon to render decisions of the most vital importance in reference to the constitutional powers of the States. This portrait is well known, and enjoys a reputation of being the finest portrait of Chief Justice Taney extant. It was painted for the family of James M. Campbell, the noted lawyer of Baltimore, who married Judge Taney's daughter, and was purchased at the sale of the effects of Mr. Campbell by his relative, the late Col. Frank M. Etting, of Philadelphia.

142 — AN OLD BEGGAR.

Signed.

This original pen and ink sketch by Rembrandt is one of two purchased at the Hamilton Sale in England by Mr. Inglis. It was presented by him to Mr. William Edgar Marshall who presented it to Mr. Alfred Trumble. Its authenticity is unquestionable, the catalogue of the sale was authenticated, and both this and the companion sketch were approved by experts. It is a fine example of this master's simple style of sketching which has such an influence, two centuries later, on the Rembrandt of France, Jean Francois Millet. Signed Alfred Trumble 1886. The above is written on the back of the picture in the hand of Mr. Trumble, and it was purchased from the executor of Mr. Trumble's estate, "late Editor of the Collector," New York. It was one of the sketches sold at the Hamilton Palace Sales, London.
